The Falun Dafa Club

Falun Dafa is a traditional spiritual discipline for mind and body. The practice involves slow, gentle movements and meditation. It began in China in 1992 and quickly spread by word of mouth throughout China and beyond. Falun Dafa is now practiced by over 100 million people in sixty different countries.

The principles of Falun Dafa are based on Truth, Compassion, and Tolerance. It is practiced by people of all ages, cultures, and backgrounds. It is easy to learn and enjoyable to practice. People who practice regularly find that it brings them better health, reduced stress, increased level of energy, inner peace, and deepened morals.

Honors College student Roman Balmakov has started a Falun Dafa Club at Daytona State. The club meets outside on the grassy area near Echo Plaza (the clock-tower area behind Bldg. 110). Mats are provided and there are no special clothing requirements, so you can come as you are. Meeting times are:

MWF 7:30-8:40am

MWF 12:30-1:40pm

TR 7:30-8:40am

TR 2:30-3:40pm
